IMPORTANT SALE

IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA

THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of

to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.

The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.

The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.

Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 50 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 3-3awtf

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.,

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. # THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Sept. 5, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH, OF RANDOLPH.

The Division of Labor.

One of the most serious obstructions in the way of the recuperation of this State is the disposition to keep up our old custom of concentrating nearly all the labor and capital in the State upon Agriculture. Farming and planting should continue to be the great business of the State. Such labor as we have can, for the most part, be more profitably employed in agriculture than in any thing else. It is by large odds more healthy, more promotive of manhood, and far less demoralizing, than any other vocation. Hence, the great bulk of our population should pursue this avocation. But, this branch of industry must be pursued with far greater skill, frugality and energy, than it has heretofore been. Our forests must be preserved in their original growth. Our large open tracts of new and old lands must be divided into smaller tenantries, and our waste and worn-out lands must be improved. It is easier and cheaper to reclaim five acres of worn-out land, than to clear one acre of wood-land. Our agricultural implements must be improved, manuring and fertilizing must be universally adopted, skillful plowing, draining and culture must be inaugurated every where, and greater attention paid to seeding, &c. All these can be vastly promoted by the organization of Agricultural Societies, co-operating with the State Agricultural Society. This parent or central Association, composed of our most intelligent, enterprising and patriotic farmers, can do more in one year to systematize and organize the free labor of North Carolina, by fixing upon wise and safe principles by which the price, time and discipline of labor can be regulated, than a thousand Freedmen's Bureaus.

But our people must not only be farmers and planters. Other vocations for the division of labor must be sought out. Skilful mechanics should be encouraged, and manufactories of all kinds, where boys and females can be profitably employed, must be established.

A large amount of capital has been invested the present year in machinery and factories in the State of Georgia. She intends to maintain her right to the title of the "Empire State of the South," and she will do it by this means.

Fayetteville ought to have 1000 looms at work, weaving up the large quantity of yarns, which are being made in that section, in to bed-ticking, stripes, ginghams, &c. We ought to have in Raleigh 1000 looms in operation, doing the same work. We have a number of Cotton Factories in the State making yarns and cotton cloths. They are a drug in the home market and must be sent abroad for sale. Why not improve the machinery and start manufactories at home to manufacture the raw material and the yarns into finer fabrics? This ought to be done at once. An outlay of $200,000 in Raleigh would establish a factory here, which could give good employment to 500 young women, and which might manufacture $500,000 worth of fabrics in a year. Every species of manufacture almost could be inaugurated in the State. Our water power and material resources are abundant. Our boys and girls, and poor women, who are now mere consumers, might be made producers in this way.

Let men of means consider this. It is to the interest of every man, who owns a farm, to encourage home manufactures, and in nothing do investments promise a better return. The almost entire surplus wealth of the South before the war was invested in negroes and bank or other stocks. They are all swept away as by a tornado. Let all surplus means be now invested in manufactures, and a tide of prosperity will turn upon the State never before realized or anticipated.

The power of New England is felt through her manufactories all over this land. It has shown itself to be a dangerous and a ruinous power to the South. Yet she has every acre of her soil nearly in cultivation. Let the South counteract and neutralize that power, by directing a portion of our own labor to manufacturing.

JUST AS THE resolution adopted by the Guilford meeting, looking to the remanding of this State to a Provisional condition, betrays the object for which the Radical Convention, proposed to be held in this City on the 20th., is called, so the brutal harangue of Brownlow, in Philadelphia, furnishes a commentary that will reveal its secret purpose. The two Conventions will be manufactured mainly out of the same material. With a few exceptions, so far as the South is concerned, the delegates present in the Philadelphia concern are discharged army sutlers or waifs dropped in the Southern States during the past few years by the operation of the Freedmen's Bureau or the Treasury cotton speculations. But a very small fraction of those engaged in the movement to get up a Convention in this State are to the "manner born." They are principally Yankee adventurers, Ohio abolitionists, and others of a similar kidney.

Bring out Your Candidates.

We warn the Worth and Johnson men of the State not to delay too long in bringing out the ablest and best men in the several counties for the Legislature. Let us have a Legislature whose position will be clearly defined upon the great national issue before the people, i. e. the Howard Constitutional amendment. Bring out no man, and vote for no man, who is not a Worth-Johnson man and opposed to every form of Radicalism.

The Philadelphia Concern.

Brownlow's Mulatto Convention scarcely stirs the surface of public opinion at the North, judging from the comments of the papers in that quarter upon its preliminary proceedings. So far as we have seen, it is the butt of general ridicule and has only excited disgust. Even the Associated Press telegraph, in its craving for sensational items to fill up its daily bulletin of news, devotes but a scant allowance of cheap electricity to the concern,—which is the more remarkable, considering that a respectable dog-fight away off in Chicago is almost deemed worthy of notice.

We do not propose to occupy much of our space with the sayings and doings of this Convention. When its platform shall have been put forth, we may notice it. Meanwhile, we glean a few facts concerning it from the New York papers received last evening.

It seems that a religious (so-called) meeting and conference of delegates was held on Sunday night, in the rooms of the "Union Central Committee," in which, instead of prayers and thanksgivings, there was much wailing and gnashing of teeth and personal assaults upon the Chief Magistrate of the Nation. "Nigger," "nigger," and destruction to the white population of the South, were sung in nasal staves and with puritanical unction. Several strong-minded women were present,—of what color, and whether attired in Bloomer costume or not, is not stated. One speaker from Tennessee, named Newman, denounced Andrew Johnson as a public disgrace and an outrage on the people of the nation, while a New Orleans "clergyman" prayed that the "nation might be scourged, if judgment was necessary." Altogether it reminds one of those fanatical and somewhat ludicrous orgies, described by Scott, in which Habbakuk Mucklewrath was wont to imprecate vengeance upon the faithless. Rather it suggests that union of "Blifil and Black George,"—puritan and blackleg,—to which Mr. Randolph once referred.

We are not apprised whether Fred. Douglas was admitted to a seat in the Convention, or not. It is said that, in case Fred. is received, a colored barber and hotel-waiter from Louisville are in attendance, who will prefer their claims for acceptance, also.

Among the delegates present from North Carolina, we notice, as yet, the names of but three persons, though the telegraph informs us that there are seven present. The three are Rev. Hope Bain, (already notorious,) a Mr. Tucker, (what Mr. Tucker we have yet to learn,) and one Glavis, a Yankee chaplain of the Freedmen's Bureau, recently convicted of peculation, or some similar crime, before a Military Commission in this City. We see no mention of Mr. Marshal Goodloe, and the mysterious nonentity, Byron Laffin, though they are both, doubtless, on hand.

"Jack" Hamilton.

We have repeatedly stated that the Radical leaders in the South are men who originally exceeded all others in sectional bitterness. A large majority of them, for years before the war, educated the people to believe in the doctrine of secession and urged the South to armed resistance. When the pinch came, and after it became evident that the South was over-matched, they treacherously deserted those whom they deluded, and now seek their utter ruin and degradation.

Jack Hamilton, the ruling spirit of the Mulatto Convention now in session in Philadelphia, before the war was the most blatant of fire-eaters. The Austin Gazette, for instance, copies from its files of 1856 the following resolutions passed by a public meeting held in that city, over which Hamilton presided:

WHEREAS, we have learned with sincere pleasure of the prompt and merited castigation inflicted by the Hon. Preston S. Brooks, of South Carolina, upon the person of Senator Sumner; therefore,

Resolved, That the Hon. Preston S. Brooks is entitled to the earnest thanks of the whole South for the energy and hearty good will with which he struck down her infamous enemy, on the very spot where the Honorable ruffian poured forth, for four consecutive hours, unmerited abuse of her institutions and favorite sons:

Resolved, That in testimony of our appreciation of the patriotic conduct of Col. Brooks, we will present to him a cane, made of the toughest wood which grows on the soil of Texas, and which, therefore, with manifest propriety, should be applied with the full force of a stout Southern arm, upon the backs of our hypocritical and slanderous enemies.

GEN. LOGAN.—We have seen no authoritative announcement of Gen. Logan, of Rutherford, as a candidate for Governor, in opposition to Gov. Worth. We were informed, upon what seemed to be good authority, that he was a candidate, and spoke of it. But it is premature to say he is the candidate, before he announces himself.

---

HAYWOOD COUNTY.—The official vote of Haywood County, on the amended Constitution, was not received at the Executive office until yesterday. The vote stood as follows:

|---|---|
| For Ratification, | 310 |
| For Rejection, | 218 |
| | 92 |

Making a difference of 92 votes against rejection in the official vote heretofore reported.

---

MR. SEWARD CHALLENGES THE RADICALS. Mr SEWARD made a speech at Niagara, on the occasion of the reception of the President, in the course of which he said: "Let them (the Radicals) put forth a man now, and nominate him for Governor of New York, to test their principles at the election in six weeks, and if they are not defeated by a forty-thousand majority, then don't count me in any longer."

Letter from Hon. Geo. Howard.

TARBORO', N. C., Aug. 30th., 1866.

MESSRS. PELL AND GALES: Dear Sirs:—On my return home I find in the columns of your paper a letter from Mr. Moore. As it is well calculated to place in a false light the conduct of myself, and all those who acted in concert with me in the late State Convention, and as my letter called it forth, (unintentionally, however,) I think a reply necessary.

In my former letter I stated two propositions as entertained by able gentlemen, prefacing them with the observation that opinions at entire variance might be honestly entertained, and following them with the assertion, that whether these propositions were correct or not was immaterial, as they placed Mr. Moore in the same relative situation to others, that myself and others stood to him, and therefore liable to like imputations, and yet he had never been assailed in the vituperative style of his speech. Thus far my reproof extended and no farther.

Mr. Moore's idea of what is "personal" differs widely from mine. To criticize, however severely, the tendency or effect of a measure, I think perfectly legitimate and entirely unobjectionable; but to say that gentlemen designedly commit breaches of their Constitutional obligations, that under a false pretence they intentionally violate the Constitution of their country, is exceedingly offensive. Nothing could be more so, and if, in the debate, I had thought such expressions intended for myself, I should, without hesitation, have pronounced them false.

But I come now to the important part of Mr. Moore's letter. He says "he shall not attempt the logic of recrimination," and immediately arraigns me as a member of the Convention.—A statement of my position is my defence; and your readers must determine whether it is a good one or not. When I "accepted the situation" and took the oath of allegiance, I did so in good faith. As a part of it, included in the President's policy, I accepted the Convention. Whether called by virtue of that clause in the Constitution guaranteeing to each State a Republican form of government, or as incident to the war-making or any other Federal power, or from necessity, I did not stop to enquire. I considered the citizens of the State as accepting it as a proper body to readjust our Federal relations. Thus far, I fully sustain the Convention and think good faith forbids any question of its powers. But when the original purpose of its call was accomplished, and it was proposed to assume the powers of a State Constitutional Convention for the purpose of entirely remodeling our State organic law, as it was without the sanction of our State Constitution, I thought it clearly unauthorized to take such action; but, without this, as it was not elected for such purpose by the people, I thought its action, if legal, wholly improper. Thus believing, I voted twice to adjourn.

But, says Mr. Moore, if you believed thus, why did you remain a member? Because, although I believed the action of the Convention illegal, it might not be so held by the Courts; and as I deemed it my duty, in deference to the majority, to raise no factious opposition, so I deemed it my duty to my constituency, should its action be sustained, to use my influence in favor of such legislation as would best subserve their interests. I think my course proper in both respects.

But Mr. Moore says I voted in the Convention on the removal of the Justices of the Peace as he did of the Judges. Mr. Moore was surely writing in haste and without consideration, when he made that charge. In the case of the Justices it was deemed best to entirely change the policy of the State as to these officers, and their removal was incidentally necessary. The propriety and validity of removal, under such circumstances, I think clear. In the case of the Judges there was no change of policy,—it was simply a removal of the officers to fill their places with partizans.

I shall cast no word of reproach at Mr. Moore about this matter. To those who know him well, the strong bias of his political thoughts and feelings, it was not surprising that he should have taken, and candidly taken, the side he did; particularly, under the heavy pressure brought to bear by life-long party associates; nor was it surprising to those, who appreciate and respect his great ability, that he should have, under the stimulation of his surroundings, produced an exceedingly able argument in support of his position.

But it did not divert the public from the real nature of the transaction, as designed and accomplished by the interested actors. It was perfectly transparent. I have never entertained a suspicion that any one attributed the removal to unworthiness in office. The provisional appointments had seemingly a Union basis; but the party which in the Convention and Legislature vacated and filled the offices blazened on every act Whig partizanship. Now, I do not believe that the great body of Whigs approved this. I am sure they did not. If I chose to amplify, I could show they did not. Even a large majority of those, through whose instrumentality it was accomplished, I believe, upon calm reflection, regretted the act, which they had been induced to commit.

That in any State, nearly equally divided in politics, the judiciary should without exception be placed in the hands of one party, is certainly to be condemned; but in the then condition of the State, when harmony should have been the chief aim of all, that one party, in the accidental possession of power, should have proscribed (not by party election, but by removal without trial) all others for what they were themselves guilty of, is entirely indefensible.

In this connection, I may say that there is only one phase of this whole matter that I regret. It brought into co-operation the true Union men of the State, of the type of Mr. Moore, with the pseudo-Unionists, a class of men incapable of appreciating or feeling loyalty; and these last, falsely claiming to be of like faith and practice, have taunted, jeered and slandered our citizens as disloyal, although, in accordance with their pledges, they have in good faith borne themselves honorably in all things towards the government, because they will not submit to their authority, crown thero with honors and laud as exalted patriotism their unscrupulous selfishness.

Towards those who, like Mr. Moore, acted from considerations arising out of their political faith, I have never entertained any feeling of condemnation of a personal character, and I hope I have in no instance either so written or spoken. If I have, I regret it; for I know our situation has been so new and complex, we have all seen as it were 'through a glass darkly.'

Yours respectfully,
GEO. HOWARD.

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION AND "REBEL" BONDS.—Speaking of the cable dispatch stating that the news of the Convention had caused "an advance in Rebel bonds," the National Intelligencer says:

The Convention gave, in fact, the coup de grace to those bonds. They were not, indeed, upon their face, payable till a cetain time after the establishment of the independence of the Confederate States. It has been suggested that the Radical policy of disunion, if carried out, might bring the bonds within the terms of the promised payment; but the conservative policy repudiates them.

General Wool for the President's Policy

It is gratifying to see that the capable and genuine and reliable old army officers are all for the President's policy. Such men as Burnside, who are weak and vain, and seek that distinction in the field of politics which they could not gain in the field of battle, are endeavoring to curry favor with radicalism. The South knows who were the men of capacity and nerve in the war. It has a right to know; and it knows that they, together with the men of integrity and honor, are supporting the President. The popinjays of war; the humbugs; those who were the most cruel and least efficient, are with the Radicals. Had they alone been in command, the South to day would be a separate and distinct nation.

The veteran General Wool says:

TROY, Aug. 29, 1866.

To Andrew Johnson
President of the United States:

MY DEAR SIR:—The Hon. George Vail, of the city of Troy, will hand you this note. As one of our most respectable and worthy citizens, I would commend him to your kind attention. He is an old-fashioned Jackson Democrat, and your political friend, who wants nothing, and seeks for nothing but his country's good. He, as well as myself, is exceedingly anxious, deeming it essential to the welfare and prosperity of the country, that you should succeed in your policy of reconstructing the Union.

We fully concur with you in the declaration that "we have had war enough; let there be peace." Another civil war is indicated by those who declare the Union dissolved, would rend the United States into fragments, followed by pestilence, famine, and desolation throughout the land, and would overturn the best government ever devised by man, and ruin the finest country on the face of the globe.

That you may succeed in your noble and generous efforts to bring back into the folds of the Union a brave people, and make us what we ought to be—a united, great, and prosperous nation—should be the earnest and anxious desire of all true patriots and lovers of their country.

I greatly regret that important private business will deprive me of the pleasure it would afford to accompany the Mayor, Common Council, Mr. Vail, and other citizens of Troy, who intend to pay their respects to you on the morrow, while en route to Chicago to celebrate the erection of a monument in commemoration of the late lamented Douglas.

I have the honor to be, with considerations of the highest respect, your obedient servant,
JOHN E. WOOL,
Maj.-Gen. U. S. A.

GENERAL NEWS.

A dispatch from New York on the 3d. inst. said:

The Northern Radicals are making extraordinary efforts to raise "delegates" to the Southern Radical Convention, to be held in Philadelphia to-morrow. Any man to be found in the Northern States who has ever seen the South within the last ten years will be pressed into the ranks and deemed eligible to a seat in this flesh-pot convention.

Swarms of Sumnerites and Fred. Douglas men passed through here to day, en route to the convention.

In the New York State Senate, when the resolutions of welcome to President Johnson, Gen Grant and Admiral Farragut were up, a proposition to include the name of Secretary Seward as a welcome guest, was lost by a vote of 3 ayes and 12 noes.

The wives of English ecclesiastical dignitaries do not partake the sacred titles of their lords. It is rather funny to read in the London papers that "the Archbishop of York and Mrs. Thompson arrived at Fullum palace yesterday, on a visit to the Bishop of London and Mrs. Tait."

The latest performance of a Yankee parson that we have seen reported is the murder of an Irishman, in Montana Territory, of whose ranch the exemplary Puritan took possession; and, by way of commencing house-keeping on an economical scale, he neatly cut up the body of the late proprietor and served choice parts of it, in variously prepared dishes, to travellers halting at his hospitable door. Unluckily for him, some uncooked parts of the disjointed Irishman came to light, which led to the parsonic publican's being hung.

A week or so ago Miss Lottie Beidleman, of Chillicothie, Peoria county, lost her speech in consequence of excessive tickling, by a companion, under the arm. She was struck dumb at the time, and in a week has only recovered enough to speak in a whisper.

One day, at the table of the late Dr. Pease, Dean of Ely, just as the cloth was removed, the subject of discourse was that of an extraordinary mortality among lawyers. "We have lost," said a gentleman, "not less than six eminent barristers in as many months." The Dean, who was quite deaf, rose as his friend finished his remarks, and gave the company grace! "For this and every other mercy, the Lord's name be praised."

After one of the late battles, as a surgeon of the Austrian army was going his rounds examining the patients, he came to a tirailleur who had been hit with a bullet in the left breast, right over the region of the heart. The surgeon, surprised at the escape of the man, exclaimed: "Why, my brave fellow, where in the name of goodness could your heart have been?" "I guess it must have been in my mouth, just then, replied the soldier, with a faint and sickly smile.

PARDONED.—We are glad to learn that the President has recently pardoned Hon. A. R. Boteler, of this place, who came under the excepted class, mentioned in the amnesty proclamation, of having been a member of the Confederate Congress. Mr. B., it will be remembered, had also been a member of the 36th United States Congress.—Shepardstown (West Va.) Register.

ELECTION OF A PROFESSOR.—G. W. Custis Lee, son of General Robert E. Lee, who was the chief of the President's staff, has been elected professor of civil engineering in the University of Georgia.—Sun.

The rascal who counterfeited the United States 10's was a moderate man. Peterson's Detector says "the toes of the female on the right end can scarcely be seen." It is difficult to count her toes on this counter-feet.

Minnesota laughs with a harvest of 16,000,000 bushels of wheat.

There is a money famine in England.

A Nevada paper nominates Cyrus W. Field for President.

DIED,

Mr. Lewis was a native of Edgecombe County, and the grandson of Col. Exum Lewis, of that County, who is honorably mentioned in Wheeler's History among the revolutionary worthies of 1776. He was bred to the bar; and, during the short time he was in practice, he conducted himself in every manner worthy of his profession, and won the esteem of his brethren. In all the relations of life he was kind, honest and just; a fond and affectionate father, an indulgent husband, and, while the master of slaves, he was humane and attentive to their welfare. Of a quiet and modest disposition, he never mingled in political strifes; nor sought political preferments, though, by education and natural ability, well qualified for high positions of trust among his fellow citizens. He was a good neighbor, a hospitable, social gentleman and a patriotic and useful citizen.

He leaves a bereaved widow, and two infant children, to lament their irreparable loss; but he leaves them in the hands of a kind Providence. B.

A CARD.

IT is proposed by the Philanthropic Society of the University of North Carolina to collect information relative to her Alumni and Members who participated in the late war. She has concluded, (as the most effectual way,) to address a Card to the Public, asking its assistance in this most praiseworthy undertaking.

The information desired is to embrace the rank and command of the individual; if dead, how and where; if wounded, in what battle, and if severely or not and if resigned, whether from disability or not. Information is particularly requested in reference to the class of 1859-'60, but an account of all classes is also wished.

The Society is convinced, unless a generous assistance is given her by the friends and relatives of those mentioned, that her attempt at compiling such material must be futile. She therefore earnestly requests each and every one, who is competent, and especially does she expect the hearty co-operation of her old and Honorary Members, to give the desired information, and at once, as half its value will be lost from delay in giving it.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Philanthropic Society of the University wish to collect information relative to their alumni and members who participated in the late war. We invite attention to their card in another column, and hope that the friends and relatives of those who fell in the war, and the surviving soldiers themselves, will contribute the desired facts at once.

Towles will have an important auction on Saturday next, to the announcement of which, in another column, we call the attention of the public.

Parties interested are referred to Court advertisements from Gates.

Creech makes a striking display in our columns this evening. He is in receipt of an immense stock of the most desirable Fall importations, and is one of our most liberal and enterprising merchants. Give him a call.

See card of Mr. Walter, Piano-tuner for the celebrated factory of Knabe & Co. We are requested by Mr. Wheat to say that he takes great pleasure in calling the attention of his friends to Mr. Walter's advertisement. Mr. Walter, the best Piano-tuner in Baltimore, was sent out by Wm. Knabe & Co., with the Concert piano that those gentlemen have tendered Mr. Wheat for his Concert here. Every one who has a piano should avail himself of this rare opportunity of having it put in perfect order by a reliable person who thoroughly understands his business.

I. H. Rogers, Commissioner, offers for sale, under a decree of Court, the tract of land near Raleigh, on which Hinton Franklin, dec'd., last resided.

Attention (and especially of those engaged in the manufacture of coaches, harness and saddles,) is called to the advertisement of Mackenzie Brothers, No. 222, Baltimore Street, Baltimore, in to-day's issue of our paper. By the death of the senior partner, Mr. Thos. Mackenzie, (who established the business as long ago as 1825,) his worthy and enterprising sons, who were associated with him in business, now represent the firm of Mackenzie Brothers. Those of our people, who deal in their line of goods, will find the same course of honorable dealing, which characterized the father, practised by the sons, who now succeed him.

The Messrs. McKimmon announce an arrival of fashionable Hats and Caps, and men's headgear of every description and style.

Gold spectacles lost: A suitable reward will be paid to the finder, who may leave them at this office.

THE HEROIC DEAD.—The following is a list of the Confederate soldiers, buried in and near this city, whose names have not heretofore been published in this paper:

One Texas officer, buried near Mr. Lovejoy's grove, who was hung by Kilpatrick's men, at the occupation of Raleigh by Sherman's army, whose name has never been ascertained.

This finishes the list of all those buried near Raleigh, whose names could be found on the graves or from friends. Any person, knowing the names of any not marked, will confer a favor by informing any officer of the Ladies' Memorial Association.

THE DAILY INDEX.—This is the title of a new daily paper just issued in this city by Messrs. Moore & Keith. Jas. H. Moore, Esq., late Clerk to the State Convention, is the Editor. The proprietors are worthy men and will exert themselves to merit public patronage. The Editor, in his salutatory, says:

"The reasons that influenced us in commencing the publication of a paper are these: We believed there was an opening for a small, cheap, well conducted NEWS-paper in the State; a paper that, laying aside the political wranglings that characterize a large number of those already in circulation, should give a synopsis of local and general news and useful miscellaneous reading; we believed a paper of this sort would meet with a fair share of public patronage and afford a fair compensation to the publishers."

The paper is neatly printed on a small sized sheet, and we wish the proprietors good success.

BASE BALL CLUBS.—We noticed, some time since, the getting up of a Club of this sort in this city. The Club is pretty full, we believe, and the sport is a manly and rational one. We learn that other clubs are forming in the State. If these clubs are strictly confined to the objects aimed at by the movers of them, they will do good. The Club in this city meets for out-door exercise late in the evening, after the business of the day is over. But if they should, like most amusements, encroach upon business duties, they will prove a serious injury. Work, work, is the order of the day, now, for all, young and old, white and black. The future destiny of the South, for weal or woe, hangs upon the shoulders of the working men. Intellect, energy, frugality and hard labor will raise the South, and nothing else can.

MUSTERED OUT.—Col. Cilley, who has been the Adjutant General of Gen. Robinson, has been relieved and mustered out of service. He is well spoken of by his superior and by all who know him. We learn that an order has been issued to muster out all who are connected with the volunteer service of the U. S. Army.

FIRST SHERIFF.—We are pleased to announce that Reuben King, Esq., the old Sheriff of Robeson, is the first Sheriff in the State who has settled with the Comptroller.

HARNETT.—James S. Harrington, Esq., is a candidate for the House of Commons from Harnett County. He is opposed to repudiation.

GEN. COLSTON'S Military Academy will open its exercises on the 1st. of October. The course of study is very full and complete, and will extend over five years. The estimated expenses for the present session, commencing 1st. of October, 1866, and ending the last Saturday in June, 1867, amount to only $365.

SOUTHERN PORCELAIN WARE.—A company near Augusta, Ga., is now manufacturing beautiful specimens of porcelain ware. Specimens have been sent to Wm. Johnston, Esq., of Charlotte, President of C. & S. C. R. Road, &c., who pronounces them very fine.

J. A. ROSEBRO, Esq., of Iredell, is announced as a candidate for re-election to the House of Commons. Mr. Rosebro made an excellent representative in the last Legislature.

A. M. Bogle, Esq., and Prof. J. Henry Hill, are the candidates for the District of Iredell, Alexander and Wilkes, for the State Senate.

Besides Mr. Rosebro, Messrs. J. H. Stevenson, Dr. R. H. Parks and Col. Chas. R. Jones are candidates for the House of Commons from Iredell.

FIRST BALE SHIPPED.—The first bale of N. C. cotton brought to Wilmington was shipped to Boston, on yesterday morning.

GRAND JAIL DELIVERY.—A bold and daring flight of prisoners from the Newbern jail was accomplished on Monday morning. Ten offenders, confined for burglary, larceny, &c., succeeded in making their escape. Only one of them has been re-captured.

FOUNDRY BURNT.—On Thursday night last, at 9½ o'clock, fire was discovered in the Foundry and Machine Shop of Mr. J. M. Howie, in this town, and before the flames could be checked all the buildings connected with the establishment were consumed, together with tools, machinery, patterns, &c. Mr. Howie is a skillful and industrious mechanic, and his loss is a severe one. We hope the sympathy of the community will be shown him in a substantial manner. His loss is at least ten thousand dollars—no insurance. Besides he was seriously injured by being burnt in the feet.—Charlotte Democrat.

THE INTENDANT and Commissioners of the town of Salisbury offer $1,000 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the incendiary who fired the dwelling of Maj. J. C. Turner, on the morning of the 27th ult.

The Commanding General at Fortress Monroe.

It has already been announced that General MILES will within a short time be removed from command at Fortress Monroe, and that he will be succeeded by General BURTON, formerly of the Third United States Artillery. In 1862, General, then Major, BURTON was in command of Fort Delaware; and while he carried out strictly and conscientiously all rules necessary to the safe-keeping of the Confederate prisoners there, he treated them with a consistent kindness and liberality, which caused his removal to be deeply and generally regretted.

The appointment of General BURTON to command at Fortress Monroe will be entirely satisfactory and acceptable to every magnanimous and charitable man; and it is certain that under General BURTON's charge Mr. Davis will be treated with the consideration and respect due to the dignity and purity of his character, and the magnitude of the sufferings which he has borne with so much patience and heroic fortitude. General MILES has been unfortunate, to say the least, during the time that Mr. Davis has been under his control. He may be satisfied with his own conduct, it is true; but this self-satisfaction will in all probability be the only reward that he will receive, unless a day should unhappily arrive when all remembrance of generous emotions and enlarged ideas shall be swallowed up in the swelling tide of northern radicalism.

Two Atlantic Cables.

It seems we are to have two Atlantic cables, and that right away. The Great Eastern has actually succeeded in fishing up the broken cable of last year, which has been spliced to a new cable, and by this time there are two working telegraph wires between the old and the new Worlds. The despatch we have received does not say whether or not the broken cable had been tested, but we presume it must have been found all right, or else it would not have been paid out again after the splice was effected.

With two good working cables we presume the charges for telegraphing between the two continents will soon be materially reduced, and the value of the lines to the public thus made far greater than it is possible for them to be at the present high rates.

Considered merely as a mechanical feat, this fishing up of the broken cable from the bottom of the ocean is certainly a marvel. It outdoes fiction.—N. Y. World.

Holden, of N. C., and Hamilton, of Texas, now of the most cerulean hue of "Loyalty," were originally ultra "Southern men"—vociferous declaimers against the North, and for fighting everybody and everything, north of the Potomac. As there were disunionists once, so are they "disunionists" now.—Lynchburg News.

The Southern Presbyterian Church contains ten Synods, forty-six Presbyteries and nearly ninety thousand communicants.

THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR.

Speech of the President at Niagara.

After expressing his thanks for the hearty and cordial reception which had been accorded him he proceeded to discuss the points at issue between himself and Congress. He said he had been accused, together with various other members of the administration, of being a traitor to his party. Why? He had no consciousness of having betrayed either the people or the party which nominated him. When it was first proposed to nominate him at the Baltimore Convention for the Vice-Presidency, he had no particular ambition to run on the ticket. At that time he considered a Senatorship of the United States fully equal in point of honor with the office of Vice-President, but he determined to accept the nomination and was duly elected.—By the Constitution of the country he had since been made President of the United States.—Every one was familiar with the platform of the Baltimore Convention. He would challenge any Congressman who now bitterly denounced him as a traitor to lay his finger on any portion of that platform which he had abandoned. The fact was, that it was not he, but the Radical party, that had deserted that platform. His present policy was identical with that of the Republican party a year ago. It had then been proposed to restore the States lately in insurrection on these conditions,—first, the abolition of slavery by the State Legislatures; second, the repudiation of the debt incurred in conducting the rebellion; third, the ratification of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery.—That was exactly where he stood to-day. He had also been accused of being a traitor, because he had vetoed the Freedmen's Bureau Bill. The President then entered into a full explanation of the character of that law, and showed that it was but a new form of slavery. He then touched upon negro suffrage, and stated that he considered it altogether out of the constitutional power of Congress to impose it as a condition of the restoration of the Southern States. If it were wished that negroes, the incompetent section of the nation, who required being supervised by a costly government bureau, should vote and become members of State Legislatures and of the Congress of the United States, why were not those privileges first accorded to the black men in the North? He regarded it as altogether unfair for the Southern States to be compelled to confer what Northern States refused to concede. Because he could not assent to the new programme of the Republican party he had been denounced as having deserted his party. He was free to say that he was for no party but for his country, and that, so far as he was concerned, party might go to the devil, or anywhere else. It must not be thought that his present tour was an electioneering campaign. He was already President, and had attained a share of political preferment which might satisfy the most ambitious of men. Mr. Johnson concluded by expressing his confidence that the people would at the approaching election preserve and defend at the ballot box the Union and the Constitution.

The First Dose Relieved.

Wm. Verrel, Esq., Matoaca, Va., says, "I was afflicted with the Liver complaint for two years, sometimes so bad that I could not lie upon my left side for one minute, nor could I walk but a short distance without stopping to rest. I tried several kinds of patent medicines but found no relief. I also tried the skill of the most eminent Physicians but still found no relief. I was at last induced to try your Pills [THE SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS,] and from the first dose I found relief, and continued to mend until I was perfectly cured. I am now a well man."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
A. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
110 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Colleges Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.
